For Gary Bay, Everyday is the Worst Day of his life.

--“Think...Always Sunny in Philadelphia meets Two Guys, a Girl and a Pizza Place.”

Everyday with Gary Bay

GARY BAY is a loser. This is the story of his comeback.

Set in a sitcom world, We meet 31 year-old Gary at what he calls the “tail-end of a lifetime of letdown.” Gary’s life has been filled with embarrassment, harassment, failure, addiction, bullying and just plain old bad luck. Gary has had enough, and is ready to pull his own plug. Just then, he meets an attractive nurse named SHERRY CARSON who shows him some attention. Now, for the first time in his life, Gary is ready to put forth some effort. But, with the hole he has dug himself, it’s going to be nearly impossible.

Gary lives with his childhood best friend, HOT HANDS, an aspiring chef. Hot Hands and Gary have very similar lives. The only difference is Hot Hands loves his life. Hot Hands likes to say his glass is half full, while Gary says his glass is just full of shit.

We follow Gary on his daily path to better himself. However, it seems no matter what he tries, failure lurks around the corner.

Gary and Hot Hand’s roommate, OSCAR SUAREZ is an illegal alien who has come to America to be in the land of opportunity. Oscar will help Gary see that certain things aren’t as bad as they seem.

Even though Gary unintentionally chases Sherry into the arms of her ex, Gary is determined to have her. It is the first and only goal he has ever given himself. And he is tired of giving up.

Gary will use his failures as learning lessons to re-build his life as he faces too many obstacles to mention and a tough family life; Mom is and alcoholic and Dad is on the run after escaping jail.

Gary Bay will be one of TV’s most lovable losers. A true underdog.
