MEDIUM SYNOPSIS

A series of misfortunes lead a West African village to accuse a young girl, Asabi (OPHELIA DZIDZORNU), of witchcraft. Their Pastor (FRED AMUGI) insists that salvation lies in her exorcism and death, using his compelling rhetoric to incite fear into the people and turn Asabi's mother (AMA K ABEBRESE) against her own daughter.

Disillusioned reporter, Godwin (ORIS ERHUERO) finds himself swept up in the witch hunt. With the help of a young school teacher (JOSEPH OTSIMAN), he attempts to save Asabi's life, fighting back against corruption and false prophets.

Based on true events, The Cursed Ones is a story of morality, corruption, and community in the heart of Africa.

LONG SYNOPSIS [CONTAINS SPOILERS!]

A series of misfortunes lead a West African village to accuse a young girl, Asabi (OPHELIA DZIDZORNU), of being a witch. Their Pastor (FRED AMUGI) insists that the only hope of salvation lies in her exorcism and death. His compelling rhetoric and ability to incite fear into the people turn Asabi's mother (AMA K ABEBRESE) and threatens to tear their fragile world apart.

Disillusioned reporter, Godwin (ORIS ERHUERO), arrives in the village to cover a local festival, but soon finds himself swept up in the witch hunt. With the help of a young school teacher (JOSEPH OTSIMAN), Godwin attempts to save Asabi's life, bravely speaking out and fighting back against the false prophets (JIMMY JEAN-LOUIS). Finding quickly that they are no match for the sway that the Pastor and his prophet hold over the village, they become desperate.

In a final attempt to break Asabi free and escape with her, Godwin confronts the Pastor. Godwin is murdered in cold blood, but not before he can secretly record incriminating evidence of the Pastor's corruption to his tape recorder. John Moses soon discovers Godwin's lifeless body and the tape recorder.

Interrupting Asabi's execution, John Moses presents the tape recording to the crowd. In a final showdown, he successfully turns everyone against the Pastor, who eventually relinquishes control over the villages, freeing Asabi.

Based on true events, THE CURSED ONES is a story of morality, corruption, and community in the heart of Africa.

BACKGROUND

The film poignantly addresses the ongoing problem of child witch accusations widespread throughout Africa and the world. Young children are accused of being witches and wizards, possessed by the devil, and responsible for whatever otherwise inexplicable ailment has befallen the family or wider community. They are tortured, abandoned, and even brutally murdered. To make things worse, self-proclaimed exorcists will charge unseemly amounts to heal a child, extorting families with the threat of publicly denouncing their children as the spawn of Satan.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Nicholas K. Lory came across the subject during his Anthropology studies at Oxford and approached Nana and Maximilian about a narrative film on the subject. Production began a year later in the Eastern Region of Ghana. Cast and crew came from around the globe, with many coming from Ghana itself. Through close collaboration with the local people, both in front of and behind the camera, the backdrop of the film came alive and took on an authenticity that would otherwise have been unachievable. Post-production took place in London, with music being composed and recorded in New York.

— KEY CREW —

NANA OBIRI YEBOAH

DIRECTOR

Nana was born in Accra, Ghana and moved to London at the age of 18. His interest in directing started early; initially as a theatre director, moving on to short films and finally, at the age of 35, directing his first feature film.

Nana's primary aim as a filmmaker is to present West-African stories with the quality and authenticity that he insists is so often lacking in representations of Africa made by African and non-Africans alike.

Nana has a degree in digital filmmaking from the SAE Institute London. He is based in London and is currently developing a feature-length screenplay with Zissou Pictures about African immigrants to London.

NICHOLAS K. LORY

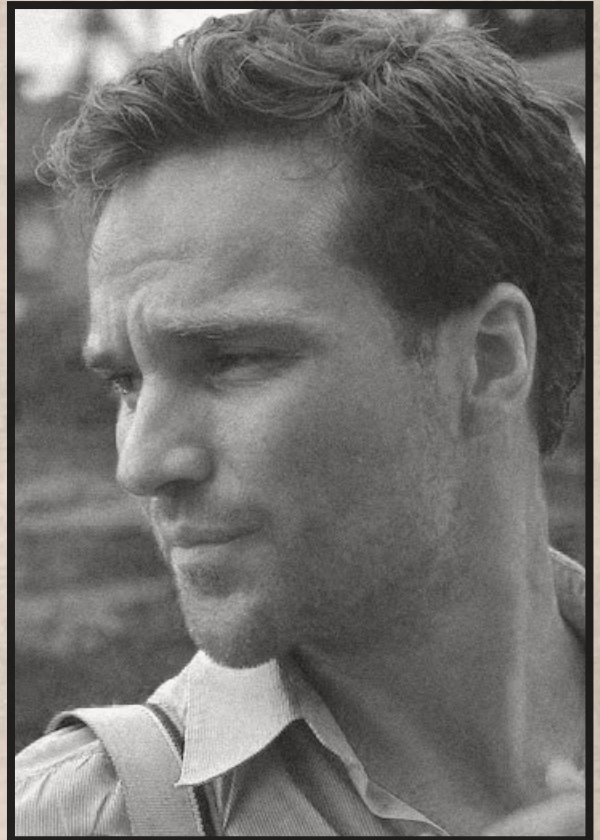

PRODUCER / DoP

Nicholas holds a BA in Philosophy and Psychology, and an MSc in Social Anthropology from the University of Oxford.

Since his first short film in 2008, Nicholas has been the producer and DOP on a variety of fashion films; over a dozen short films; and 3 feature length films. His credits include DROWNED OUT (2012), LETHE (2014), and DARKNET DELIVERY (2014, SXSW).

In 2009 he co-founded Zissou Pictures Ltd., a film production company based in London, but now operating in a number of countries worldwide.

THE CURSED ONES is Nicholas' third feature film as a producer and DoP and his first film shot in Africa. He is currently working on projects in the UK and Africa, including an animated feature film and a live-action feature film set in London.

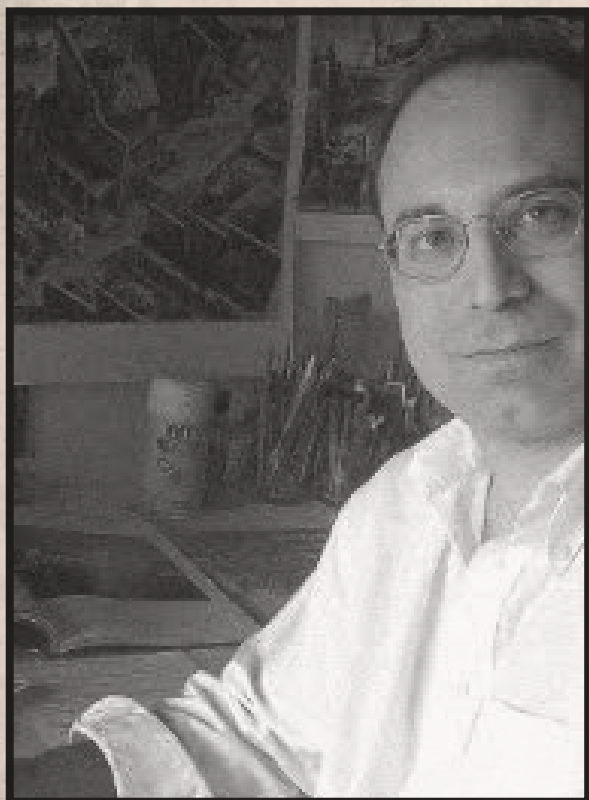

MAXIMILIAN CLAUSSEN

WRITER / CO-DIRECTOR

THE CURSED ONES is Maximilian's second feature film, and his second collaboration with Nicholas K. Lory and Zissou Pictures. He was brought onto the project at an early stage in development, working with Nana Obiri Yeboah and first hand sources in Africa to produce a vivid, authentic script.

Maximilian grew up in Hamburg, Germany and has a BA in Anthropology and Philosophy. He is currently based in New York where he works as a screenwriter and is currently developing a feature script for Zissou Pictures.

DAVIDE DE STEFANO

PRODUCTION DESIGNER

Davide, based in Rome, has worked as a production and conceptual designer for over twenty years.

His credits feature a wide variety of television programmes and feature films from around the world, including EMPIRE (2005), THE NATIVITY STORY (2006), GHOST SON (2007), TUTTA LA VITA DAVANTI (2008), and VOICE FROM THE STONE (2016).

BENJAMIN WRIGHT

MUSIC COMPOSER

Based in New York, this is Benjamin's second collaboration with Zissou Pictures after working on the soundtrack for their short film, LETHE (2014).

His credits include composing and performing the original music for Louis C.K.'s EMMY award-winning television programme, LOUIE (2010 - 2016). Benjamin has recently completed work on a fifth season for the programme.

The soundtrack is being distributed in the US and will be available for purchase in March 2016.

JOSH LEVINSKY

EDITOR

Based in London, Josh has over a decade of experience in editing. His credits include a variety of documentaries, short films, and feature films. Some examples of his work are documentary, LONG DISTANCE (2006), short films, KID (2009) and LOVE AT THE END OF THE WORLD (2010), and feature film, LUCKY (2011).

— CAST —

ORIS ERHUERO
AS GODWIN ESEUDU

Nigerian born, spending the majority of his life in LA and London, Oris originally rose to fame in his leading role on the TV programme, THE ADVENTURES OF SINBAD (1996-1998). He went on to star alongside Idris Elba in the critically acclaimed film by Raul Peck, SOMETIMES IN APRIL (2005), and most recently took on the lead role in Genevieve Nnaji's bestseller, ROAD TO YESTERDAY

AMA K ABEBRESE
AS CHINUE

Ghanaian superstar, Ama K, is well known for her leading role in the recent Idris Elba film, BEAST OF NO NATION (2015), TIES THAT BIND (2011), and her performance in SINKING SANDS (2009), for which she won Best Female Lead at the Africa Movie Academy Awards that year.

JIMMY JEAN LOUIS

AS PALADIN

Haitian actor known for his role in the US television programme, HEROES (2006-2015), the Bruce Willis film, TEARS OF THE SUN (2003), the Ghanaian film, SINKING SANDS (2011), and the Steven Spielberg TV programme, EXTANT (2014), and the David O. Russell film, JOY (2015).

FRED AMUGI

AS PASTOR UCHEBO

A staple in West African cinema, Fred has graced the screen in these parts countless times over the last decades. In recent years Fred has also starred more frequently in international productions such as THE DESTINY OF LESSER ANIMALS (2011) and, most recently, BEASTS OF NO NATION (2015).

DAVID DONTOH

AS THE BARTENDER

One of the powerhouses of Ghanaian cinema, David has starred in numerous African productions, including the widely successful film TIES THAT BIND (2011). David is also a familiar face in foreign productions, appearing in BEASTS OF NO NATION (2015) and THE DEAD (2010).

OPHELIA DZIDZORNU

AS ASABI

Celebrating her 15th birthday during the production of THE CURSED ONES, Ophelia is the youngest cast member. She shines in the film, taking on the role of the accused girl, Asabi, with grace and determination. With a background in theatre and modelling, this marks Ophelia's cinematic debut.
